Product description

SPARTUS® BEAR - TOTAL SAFETY, MAXIMUM COMFORT

The SPARTUS® BEAR face shield has been designed with eye and face protection in mind. With interchangeable shields and a specially contoured shape, the face shield can adapt to various user needs, providing protection during grinding, and cutting.

WIDE FIELD OF VIEW AND COMFORTABLE WORK

The face shield offers a wide field of view, enhancing ease of movement during material processing. Thanks to its ergonomic design, adjustable headband and lightweight construction, users can work comfortably even for extended periods.

RELIABLE PROTECTION

The SPARTUS® BEAR face shield in its standard version is dedicated for grinding applications. Enhancing its capabilities for cutting tasks can be achieved by replacing the protective shield. The shield, made of durable polycarbonate, effectively protects against high temperatures and debris.
